Central 7, Southeast 6

Southeast scored four runs in the top of the seventh inning to make things interesting, but Central held on to claim a 7-6 win to open action on the second day of the Bay State Summer Games baseball tournament. Tony Martinelli (Rutland; Wachusett Reg. HS) set the pace early on the hill for Central. The big lefty tossed four innings, allowing two hits while striking out seven including five of the first six batters. Central built a 7-2 lead heading into the final frame but Southeast staged a furious comeback to pull within a run. Kyle MacDonald (Hanover; Xavarian Brothers) singled to start the inning and then scored on a single by Rob McCunney (Cohasset; Boston College HS). Chris Puliafico (Sharon; Sharon HS) followed with a single and then both runners came home after an RBI single by Brendan Doonan (Cohasset; Cohasset HS) was misplayed. Jim Perron (Norwell; Archbishop Williams) then singled in Doonan to cut the lead to one. Central started the scoring in the first when Alex Posch (Hopedale; Hopedale HS) walked, stole second and scored on a throwing error by the Southeast second baseman. They added two runs in the second inning when Bryan Perez (Worcester; Doherty Mem. HS) drove in Brian Sullivan (Auburn; Auburn HS), and then scored on a basehit by Posch. Trevor DeRochea (Stoughton; Stoughton HS) took over on the hill in the third for Southeast (1-1) and did a good job keeping his team in the game. He tossed 3 2/3 innings, allowing a hit and two unearned runs. Central (1-1) reliever Liam O'Sullivan (S. Grafton; Holy Name Central Catholic) pitched one inning and struck out the side in order.

Metro 9, Northeast 2

After a tight contest early on, Metro pulled away from Northeast to take a 9-2 victory.

Alex Farkes (Boston; BB&N) led the Metro team to their second win going 2-for-4 with four RBI and two runs scored. The first baseman made his mark in the tournament blasting a two-run homer over the leftfield fence – the first round tripper of the 2009 Summer Games. Joe Bradlee (Cambridge; BB&N) contributed three runs to Metro's victory along with Chris Conlon (Weston; Weston HS), who scored twice. Third baseman Justin Sencabaugh (Medford; Malden Catholic) went 1-for-1, knocking in two RBI and scoring a run. Fellow infielder Pat Connaughton (Arlington; St. John's Prep) also brought in a pair of RBI and went 3-for-4 on the day.

Pitcher Sean Boyle (Arlington; Arlington HS) scattered seven hits, while allowing only two runs to lock up the win for Metro (2-1).

Northeast's Michael Calzetta (Lawrence; Lawrence HS), a hard-throwing right-hander, struck out six over 4 1/3 innings but got little help from a sloppy defense behind him in a losing effort.

Offensively, Kyle Leblanc (Newburyport; Newburyport HS) went 1-for-2 with a walk and two stolen bases, while Ryan O'Connor (Newburyport; Newburyport HS) and Colin Norris (Andover; Andover HS) knocked in both of the runs for Northeast (1-1).

The game was called after six innings due to rain.
