Southeast 14, Metro 6

The first half was dominated by the powerful Southeast squad who took an 8-1 lead. Metro didn't give up and played much stronger in the second half but not well enough to overcome the early seven goal deficit. Metro goalie Jessie O'Neil made 31 saves. Paul Cleverly (Hull; Hull HS) led all Southeast scorers with three goals. Justin Lawless (Quincy; Archbishop Williams HS) and Kevin Malloy (Newton; Newton North) each scored two goals for Metro. Southeast goalie Alex Tonole (Hull; Hull HS) made six saves.

Coastal 7, Central 6

Central took an early lead and was up 5-2 at the half but Coastal stormed back with three unanswered goals in the third quarter. Coastal's Hunter O'Brien (Duxbury; Duxbury HS) scored his second goal of the game which was the game-winner with seven seconds remaining in regulation. Central attacker Connor Mackenzie (Harvard; Groton School) scored four goals leading the Central attack. Central goalie Scott Roy (Shrewsbury; Shrewsbury HS) was sharp, making 13 saves.

Northeast 15, West 2

Northeast got out to a fast start and cruised to a 15-2 victory over West. Matt Whippen (N. Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS) scored four goals and an assist to lead all Northeast attackers. Alex Hurd (Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS) competed hard throughout the game, and scored three goals. Chris McCormick (Westfield) and Alex Quoterley (Westfield; Westfield HS) each scored a goal for the West.

Coastal 8, Metro 5

Coastal edged Metro, 8-5, in a back-and-forth game. The winner in this game was decided by which team had more energy left after today's earlier hard fought contests. Coastal coming off of a 7-6 come-from-behind win over Central, where at one point they were down 5-2, didn't waste time getting a lead in game two. Two goals each coming from attackers Hunter O'Brien (Duxbury; Duxbury HS), Lance O'Donovan (Duxbury; Duxbury HS) and Sam Beattie (Duxbury; Duxbury HS) brought a more balanced attack for Coastal in the second game. Metro's Justin Lawless (Quincy; Archbishop Williams HS) and Kevin Malloy (Newton; Newton North) each scored a goal giving them three goals on the day.

Northeast 15, Southeast/Coastal 11

Northeast defeated Southeast/Coastal, 15-11. Northeast attacker Sara Miller (Andover; Andover HS) led all scorers with five goals. Also playing well was Mary Guinee (Topsfield; Masconomet) with three goals, and Rosie Forster (Andover; Andover HS) and Erin Maguire (Woburn; Woburn HS), who had two goals apiece. With help from her defense, goalie Rachel Socolow (Westford; Westford Academy) made ten saves and got the victory.

The Southeast/Coastal attack was a well-balanced one with Kaitlyn Stazinski (Pembroke; Milton Academy), Allison Boudreau (Canton; Canton HS), and Phoebe Laplante (Acushnet; Bishop Stang) scoring three, three, and two goals, respectively.

Central 17, Metro 14

Central edged Metro, 17-14. Central's offensive pressure was applied by Kelsey Sheridan (Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS) with four goals, Kelcie Boudreau (Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS) with two goals, Katherine King (Paxton; Wachusett Reg. HS) with three goals, and Joslyn Stabile (N. Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS) with two goals. Central goalies Jamie Spidle (Fiskdale; Tantasqua Reg. HS) and Jillian Bungard (Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS) combined for 16 saves.

Metro kept pace offensively with four goals from Lauren Willey (Arlington; Arlington HS), three goals from Brittany Jaillet (Newton; Newton North), and two goals from Dana Dierf (Quincy; North Quincy HS).

Southeast 11, Central 1

Southeast plowed over Central with an 11-1 win. From the very beginning, Southeast overpowered Central, pounding in five goals in the first quarter. Southeast's Chris Ryan (Norwood; Norwood HS) led his team to victory scoring four points. Brian Rossman (Norwood; Norwood HS) also had a great game tossing in three goals. Patrick McKeon (Worcester; St. Peter-Marian) scored Central's only goal in the fourth quarter to prevent a shutout.

Metro 6, West 5

Metro held on to defeat West, 6-5. Metro held a comfortable lead through most of the game until West stormed back with three unanswered goals in under a minute in the final moments of regulation threatening to send the game into overtime. Metro was able to stave off the assault for the last minute and a half to hang on for the victory. Matthew Coston (Brighton; Brighton HS) led Metro with two goals. Justin Lawless (Quincy; Archbishop Williams), Jake McCaffrey (Medford; Matignon), and Austin Hightower added a point each to Metro's win. Nick Romeo (Salem, Salem HS) had a great game between the pipes with 16 saves. Peyton O'Connor (Westfield, Suffield Acad.) led all scorers with three goals for West.

Northeast 14, Coastal 7

After an impressive turn-around to start the second half, Northeast powered over Coastal for a 14-7 win. Coastal held a comfortable 6-1 lead at the half but Northeast stormed out in the second half as a completely different team, blasting in nine goals to Coastal's one in the third quarter followed by four unanswered goals to give them the clear victory. Northeast was led by Matt Whippen (N. Chelmsford; Chelmsford) with four goals and two assists. Dan Crowley (Beverly; Beverly HS) and Zach Gaucher (Wenham; Hamilton Wenham Reg.) tossed in two goals and two assists each. Coastal's Sam Beattie (Buxbury; Duxbury HS) led his team with two goals.

West 9, Southeast 8

West inched past Southeast 9-8 in a close match-up. West's offense was anchored by the solid play of Peyton O'Connor (Westfield; Suffield Academy) who had three goals and three assists. West Goalie Max Ouimet (Hatfield; Suffield Academy) had a team high 10 saves. Southeast Goalie's Alex Tonole (Hull; Hull HS) and Cory Dillion (Weymouth; Weymouth HS) combined for 15 saves. However, it was enough to stop West from edging past Southeast.

Central 18, Northeast 10

Central beat Northeast, 18-10, in a matchup featuring two multi-goal scorers. Northeast attempted to rally behind Molly Klinka (Westford; Westford Academy), who scored two goals. Klinka was helped by Sara Miller (Andover; Andover HS), who also had two goals for Northeast. Lauren Borislow (Methuen; Kimball Union Academy) also scored a goal.

Southeast/Coastal 13, West 12

Southeast/Coastal beat West in a 13-12 nail biter. West's Liane Moses (East Longmeadow, East Longmeadow HS) led West with four goals. However, she wasn't far ahead of Kelsey Rahilly (Longmeadow; Longmeadow HS) who scored three goals. Katherine Stanton (Agawam; Cathedral) led the team with 11 saves. Southeast/Coastal's Sarah Buckley (Walpole; Walpole HS) led all scorers with five goals.

Metro 16, West 15

Metro eked out a close victory, beating West, 16-15. Lauren Willey (Arlington; Arlington HS) and Brianne Phelan (Quincy; Quincy HS) each scored four goals to lead Metro, and Brittany Jaillet (Newton; Newton North) added three. Liane Moses (E. Longmeadow; E. Longmeadow HS) was the top scorer for West with four goals. Erin King (Northampton; Northampton HS) and Kristen Lombardo (E. Longmeadow; E. Longmeadow HS) chipped in with three goals apiece.

Central 19, Southeast/Coastal 18

Central squeaked past Southeast/Coastal 19-18 in one of the most evenly matched lacrosse match ups of the Bay State Games. Central's Lindsey Maynard (Milford; St. Peter Marian HS) was one of two Central players to score six goals. Maynard also two assists. Central's Kelsey Sheridan (Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS) scored six goals, as well. Phoebe Laplante (Acushnet; Bishop Stang HS) was Southeast/Coastal's leading scorer with five goals and an assist.

Central 12, Metro 7

Central's offense was too much as they defeated Metro, 12-7. It was an evenly played game in the field but Central had a large shots-on-goal advantage. Despite a valiant effort from goalie Nick Romeo (Salem; Salem HS) who had 21 saves, Metro fell short. Central ran a nice spread offense with Andrew Manley-O'Brien (Shrewsbury; Shrewsbury HS), Conor Breeden (Worcester; Holy Name HS), Lukas Turchetts, Peter Jakola (Leominster; Leominster HS) and Nicholas Nadeau all scoring two goals each. Central goalie Scott Roy (Shrewsbury; Shrewsbury HS) had 11 saves in the victory.

Northeast 12, Southeast 6

Northeast showed Southeast how it's done in a 12-6 win today. Nick Pinciario (Beverly; Beverly HS) and Zach Gaucher (Wenham; Hamilton Wenham Regional HS) led all scorers with four goals and an assist each. Northeast's Derek Tryder (Wakefield; Wakefield HS) wasn't very far behind with two goals. Brad Beady (Weymouth; Weymouth HS) had two goals and an assist, though it wasn't. Northeast Goalie Nick Thayer (Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS) had 10 saves.

Coastal 6, West 4

Coastal edged out West 6-4 in an evenly matched game to earn a berth in the gold medal game against Northeast on Sunday. West kept it close all game entering the fourth only down a goal, but was unable to overcome Coastal's offense. West's Andrew Wilson (Westfield; Westfield HS) scored three goals in the loss. Coastal attackers Lance O'Donovan (Duxbury; Duxbury HS), Justin Mello (Dartmouth; Dartmouth HS), and Sam Beattie (Duxbury; Duxbury HS) scored two goals each.

Northeast 15, Central 0

Northeast bulldozed past Central, 15-0. Northeast jumped out early and put the game away with four goals in the first. Geoff Kennedy (Gloucester; Gloucester HS) led all scorers with four goals and one assist. Zach Gaucher (Wenham Hamilton; Wenham Regional HS) wasn't far behind with three goals and an assist. Nick Thayer (Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS), who had six saves in the 15-0 shutout, played solid defense. Though Central gave up 15 goals, goalie Scott Roy (Shrewsbury; Shrewsbury HS) still managed to get 14 saves.

Northeast 15, Metro 11

Northeast took down Metro 15-11 in a game which featured a five-goal scorer. Northeast forward Ashley Clement (Tyngsboro; Tyngsboro HS) led everyone with five goals. Sara Miller (Andover; Andover HS) and Erin Maguire (Woburn; Woburn HS) added three goals apiece. Metro's Lindsey Kelly (Arlington; Arlington HS) and Lauren Willey (Arlington; Arlington HS) also had three goals each. However, it was not enough to outdo Northeast's Rachel Socolow (Westford; Westford Academy), who had 14 saves.

West 14, Central 13

Undefeated Central fell to West, 14-13. Leading the West in the victory were Liane Moses (East Longmeadow; East Longmeadow HS) with four goals, Erin King (Northampton; Northampton HS) with three goals and an assist, Alex Allen (East Longmeadow; East Longmeadow HS) with two goals and an assist, and Ericka Larssen (Wilbraham; Minnechaug Reg. HS) with two goals. Katherine Stanton (Agawam; Cathedral HS) stood strong in goal recording nine saves in the victory for the West. Central nearly pulled it out with strong play from Lindsey Maynard (Milford; St. Peter Marian HS), who had three goals, and from Kelsey Sheridan (Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS), Kelcie Boudreau (Chelmsford; Chelmsford HS), and Amanda Gauvin (Ashburnham; Oakmont Reg. HS), who all had two goals and one assist.
